

Directors & Officers Liability Insurance

Your Award Winning Insurer

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION BEFORE COMPLETING THIS PROPOSAL

Completing this Proposal Form

- Any references throughout this Proposal Form to “you”, “your” or “insured” are to be read as references to “the proposer”. Any reference to “we”, “us”, “our” or “BIA” are to be read as references to “Berkley Insurance Company (limited company incorporated in Delaware, USA) ABN 53 126 559 706 | AFSL 463129 t/as Berkley Insurance Australia”.
- Please answer all questions giving full and complete answers. If a question in the Proposal Form does not apply to the proposer, this should be marked as “Not Applicable” or “N/A”.
- If the space provided on the Proposal Form is insufficient, please use a separate signed dated sheet in order to provide a complete answer to any question.
- It is the duty of the proposer to provide all information that is requested in this Proposal Form as well as to disclose relevant facts. A relevant fact is a known fact or circumstances that may influence the evaluation of risk by the insurer. If you are uncertain about what a relevant fact is, please contact your broker.

A. Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

B. Claims Made and Notified Policy

This Proposal Form is for insurance issued on a 'claims made and notified' basis. This means that the policy responds to:

- (a) claims first made against the insured during the policy period and notified to us during the policy period, provided that the insured was not aware at any time before policy inception of facts, matters or circumstances which would have put a reasonable person in the insured's position on notice that a claim may be made against the insured; and
- (b) written notification of facts pursuant to section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. If the insured chooses to tell us in writing about facts which might give rise to a claim against the insured as soon as reasonably practicable after the insured becomes aware of these facts but before insurance cover provided by the policy expires, then we are not relieved of liability under the policy for the claim, when made, by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of insurance cover provided by the policy.

After the policy expires, no new notification of facts may be made on the expired policy even though the event giving rise to the claim against you may have occurred during the policy period. An exception to this is where an extended reporting period applies to the policy. If an extended reporting period applies, then cover may be available for notifications of facts or claims made up to expiry of the extended reporting period.

When completing the proposal the insured is required to provide full details of all facts, matters and circumstances of which they are aware and which a reasonable person in the insured's position would consider may give rise to a claim. It is important that the insured make proper disclosure. Refer to the Duty of Disclosure above to understand the insured's disclosure obligations.

C. Retroactive Date

This policy does not provide cover for claims arising from or in connection with an act, error, omission or event occurring or alleged to have occurred before the policy's retroactive date, where such a date is specified in the schedule.

D. Subrogation Agreements

Where another person would be liable to compensate you for any loss or damage otherwise covered by the insurance, but you have agreed with that person either before or after the loss or damage occurred that you would not seek to recover any monies from that person, we will not cover you under the insurance for such loss or damage.

E. Privacy Statement

We are a member of the W. R. Berkley Corporation, which we refer to as WRBC.

We take privacy seriously and are committed to handling and protecting your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and Australian Privacy Principles (APPs). This Privacy Statement explains how we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information and who we share it with. It should be read with our Privacy Policy which provides more information about our privacy practices.

Our Privacy Policy is available at <https://berkleyinaus.com.au>. Alternatively, you can use the details in Contact Us at the end of this Privacy Statement to request a copy of our Privacy Policy.

Consent

You agree to us collecting, holding, using and disclosing your personal information as set out in our Privacy Policy when you: (i) provide us with your personal information; or (ii) apply for, use or renew any of our products and services.

Personal information about others

If you provide us with personal information about another person, then you must: (i) have their consent to do so; and (ii) tell them that you are disclosing their personal information to us and provide them with a copy of this Privacy Statement.

How we collect your personal information

We collect your personal information directly from you, your agents and through others including the parties listed in our Privacy Policy. This includes our agents and service providers. We will use a variety of methods to collect your personal information from these parties, including written forms, telephone calls and electronic delivery.

Not giving us your personal information

You may choose not to give us your personal information. However, this may affect our ability to provide you with any, some or all of the features of our products or services, including processing a claim.

How we handle your personal information

We will use your personal information for the purposes we collected it. This usually includes: (i) providing you with assistance, a product or service you have requested; (ii) handling claims and complaints you have made; and (iii) facilitating our business functions and operations.

Your personal information may also be used for other purposes that are set out in our Privacy Policy.

We may disclose your personal information to other members of WRBC, agents or service providers (either yours or ours), other insurers, reinsurers, persons involved in a claim and other parties set out in our Privacy Policy. These disclosures will be for the same purposes described above or as otherwise permitted by law.

Overseas Disclosure

Sometimes we need to provide your personal information to, or get personal information about you from, persons or organisations located overseas. We will do this for the same purposes as in the 'How we handle your personal information' section above.

The complete list of countries is contained in our Privacy Policy.

From time to time, we may need to disclose your personal information to, and collect your personal information from, persons and organisations located in countries that are not on the list.

Marketing

Every now and then we might let you know – including via email, telephone or online - about news, products and services that we think may be of interest to you.

We will engage in marketing unless you tell us otherwise. We want you to be able to exercise your marketing preferences. Accordingly, you can contact us to update your marketing preferences by using the details in Contact Us below. Alternatively, you can simply follow the unsubscribe instructions in the relevant communication. More information about our marketing practices can be found in our Privacy Policy.

Access, correction and complaints

You have the right to request access and correct your personal information held by us. Our Privacy Policy provides information about how you can: (i) access your personal information; (ii) ask us to correct your personal information; and (iii) complain about a breach of the APPs and how we will deal with such a complaint.
