

DIRECTORS & OFFICERS LIABILITY

Directors and Officers Liability Insurance protects directors or officers against a claim made against them for a wrongful act in their management of the company. This cover will protect their personal assets from financial loss.

How Much We Can Cover

$20m Primary and Excess options

Types of Protection

Workplace Health & Safety Investigations

Employment Issues

Employee Theft

Your actions as a director or officer

Statutory Liability

Who we Cover

- Manufacturers
- Retailers & Wholesalers
- Engineers & project management
- Construction & building companies
- Financial planners
- Health & Medical services
- Professional business such as Accountants & Recruitment Agencies
- Insurance, Finance or Mortgage Brokers
- IT companies

Appetite list is not exhaustive, if it's not on our decline list we can still have a look at it for you

Why do you need Directors & Officers Liability Insurance?

Directors and Officers liability insurance protects companies from a range of demands for compensation or damages to criminal or regulatory proceedings. Coverage for employment practices is vital for company stakeholders to avoid personal financial and reputational loss for circumstances concerning unfair dismissal, harassment, discrimination and other related wrongful acts.

Berkley Insurance Australia regularly responds to such claims with the aid of its specialist employment law panel partners and we aim to resolve such matters by the most appropriate means.

Berkley
Insurance Australia
I a Berkley Company

1300 800 772
berkleyinaus.com.au